

Indiana Coalition Against
Domestic Violence

1915 W. 18th Street, Suite B • Indianapolis, IN 46202
Administrative: 317-917-3685 • 800-538-3393 • Fax 317-917-3695
E-mail: icadv@icadvinc.org • Website: icadvinc.org

Legal Issues for Victims of Abuse

From Kerry Hyatt Bennett, JD

ICADV Legal Counsel

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY FOR INDIANA ATTORNEYS

ICADV's Satellite Attorney Program

The Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Inc. is looking to contract with attorneys all over Indiana to provide critical legal services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking in their civil, survivor focused legal situations. This includes but is not limited to representation in the following types of cases: protective orders, divorces, custody, parenting time issues, housing and poverty issues, unemployment claims due to domestic violence, parental relocation issues, DCS/CHINS matters resulting from domestic violence. Emergent cases are given priority due to funding restrictions.

Cases are referred to ICADV by our member programs which provide critical crisis and advocacy services to those survivors, promoting a holistic approach to survivor focused case.

Requirements:

- Admitted to practice law in Indiana and in good standing
- Complete a training webinar on best practices in working with survivors in their civil legal cases
- Proof of malpractice insurance coverage
- Completion of a MOU/contract with ICADV
- Donation of a portion of case time as pro bono; amount determined by you.

What you get:

- A modest means rate of $75.00 per hour plus expenses and mileage for travel
- Reportable pro bono and modest means time.
- Free, comprehensive training with follow up technical assistance
- A more thorough understanding of the legal challenges survivors often face
- The opportunity to use your talent for good-to change a life.

For more information or to apply, please send a statement of interest and resume to:

Kerry Hyatt Bennett, JD
Legal Counsel
Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Inc.
kbennett@icadvinc.org
